Ormskirk & District General Hospital – Endoscopy Unit

2010 - 2012
£400K Development

S I Sealy was appointed in October 2010 to provide the detailed design, construction phase monitoring and M&E cost control for the upgrade and refurbishment of Ormskirk Hospital’s Endoscopy unit. We designed new Reverse Osmosis sterilisers to comply with legislation, as well as clean and dirty rooms and the endoscopy rooms.

This project commenced on site in April 2011 and was completed in April 2012. The project was delivered to budget.
